PINETOP.

We have had quite an increase in population of late, several families having moved in on account of the making.

Our school is rapidly drawing to a close, there being less than two weeks left at the time this will be read.

Miss Gracie Clayton is a welome addition to Pinetop's circle of young folks.

Miss Laura Park of Forsyth visited Pinetop friends Saturday and Sunday. Bert and Ida Biles and baby are vis iting relatives here the past 10 days. The past few days a wolf hunt has been on, one wolf so far and lots of Prof. Stottle is one of the best in structors the district has ever employed, there being but one criticism to offer, he cuts his lessons a little too long.

Jim Kelley started to Forsyth Tuesday with a load of lumber. Expects to visit his son Charlie at the dam before he returns home.

Zona Church has been on the sick list for several days.

The school invited all the parents and friends to join in a spelling match last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Puter baugh and Mrs. Luke "chose up." and then the fun began. After an hour and a half of solid enjoyment in round spelling, the score stood 53 to last week. 35 in favor of Mrs. Luke's side. Then everybody went home happy.

Harry Church was home from Satur day night till Tuesday morning, except he made a trip to Omaha Monday.

The sad news reaches us that Stanton Pratt, lately a pupil in our school. whose mother was our teacher, is dead. The account is from the Stillman Valley (Ill.) Courier of Feb. 25th:

Stanton White Pratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pratt, died at the home of his uncle, W. N. Carmichael in Stillman Valley, Tuesday morning February 25, 1913. Stanton was born in Shabbona, DeKalb county, Ill., July 25, 1903, being nine years seven months of age. The death was particularly sudden and sad. The little fellow was taken with appendicitis last Saturday morning. On Monday he was operated upon. on the hill, and will move there with Neither his father nor mother were his family about the first of April present during his last illness. Mr. Pratt is travelling auditor for the Soo railway, with headquarters at Milltown, Wis. Mrs. Pratt, who is Mrs. Carmichael's sister, and Stanton have been visiting here since thanksgiving. A week ago Mrs. Pratt joined her husband for a short visit. Stanton stayed here to attend school. Owing to the storm of Friday and Saturday, telegraphic communication was delayed, Alva Hull and J. C. Parrish were apand word of Stanton's illness did not reach his parents until too late. The funeral will be held this (Friday) after noon at 4 p. m., at the home of W. N. Carmichael. The burial will be here, found in another column.

HORSES LOVED BY SOLDIERS

Animals That Have Carried Leaders Through Famous Campaigns Remembered With Affection.

The fact that King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, commander-in-chief of the Balkan forces, has a favorite black charger which he has named Varna, after the place of that name on the Black sea where his summer place is situated, reminds one of the affection which has existed between celebrated soldiers and the horses which have accompanied them through their numerous campaigns.

One of the most famous war horses was Lord Roberts' gallant charger, Volonel, which died a few years ago, and lies buried near the Royal hospital, Dublin, Volonel was a gray Arab which Lord Roberts bought in India, and he rode the animal to Kandahar.

Lord Roberts was very much attached to the animal, and when Queen Victoria awarded medals to the soldiers who had gone through the Afghan war the hero of Kandahar proudly hung round his charger's neck the Kabul medal with four clasps and the Kandahar star of bronze.

The best known of Lord Kitchener's war horses was a handsome chestnut which he named Omdurman. The animal carried Kitchener during that battle, and ultimately went with his master to South Africa during the Boer war.
